DOI Analyst Matthew Aidala Designated as APIR by NAIC

(DOVER, DE – January 12, 2015) - Matthew Aidala, Insurance Financial Analyst with the Delaware Department of insurance, has been recognized as an Associate Professional in Insurance Regulation by the National Association of Insurance Commissioners.

The APIR designation is evidence of well-rounded knowledge of insurance regulation, signifying that the designee has mastered foundation-level concepts in the areas of financial regulation, market conduct regulation, and product regulation.

Aidala earned a Bachelor of Science degree from the University of Delaware in 2008, a Masters of Business Administration from Goldey Beacom College in 2011, and is currently working on a Post-Bachelor Certificate in Accounting from Wilmington University. He has also earned the Accredited Financial Examiner (AFE) designation from the Society of Financial Examiners.

Matt joined DOI in 2011, and is responsible for reviewing and analyzing annual and quarterly financial statements for Delaware-domiciled Insurance Companies and Risk Retention Groups.
